

Isabella Briones

508.507.7882 | isabella.briones@duke.edu | linkedin.com/in/isabella-briones-2a2720321 | Millis, MA

EDUCATION

Duke University, Pratt School of Engineering, Durham, NC May 2029
B.S.E. in Civil Engineering and Certificate in Energy and the Environment | GPA: 3.96/4.0

WORK EXPERIENCE

-
- Rachel Carson Council, Stanback Fellow, Washington, DC May 2026-July 2026
- Conducted in-depth research on public transit and produced written communications on solar energy, environmental policy, climate justice, and conservation issues for publication and advocacy campaigns.
 - Developed advocacy materials, including op-eds, letters to the editor, policy briefs, creative pieces, and digital communications, translating complex environmental topics for public audiences.
 - Collaborated with a national cohort of fellows and Rachel Carson Council staff to advance environmental campaigns through research, storytelling, civic engagement, and policy advocacy.
- ClimateCAP at Duke's Fuqua School of Business, Digital Media Intern, Durham, NC Fall 2025-Present
- Write research-based op-eds, blog posts, and fact sheets for MBA students
 - Collaborate and manage 50+ partner MBA business schools to boost program and visibility
 - Assist in the execution of the annual ClimateCAP Summit
- Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Intern, Boston, MA Summer 2024
- Tracked RAD23A protein in cell lines through media preparation, Western blotting, and mass spectrometry
 - Assisted in multiple myeloma tumor analysis in mouse cells
 - Researched multiple myeloma and contributed to team's research database
- Twist Bakery and Cafe, Baker, Millis, MA Spring 2022-Present
- Work part time preparing seasonal dishes
 - Engage with 100+ customers per shift and handle transactions
 - Train new employees on basic procedure and safety guidelines

LEADERSHIP AND INVOLVEMENT

-
- Mapping Heat and Walkability for Duke Heat Governance, Research Member, Duke University Present
- Collect and analyze heat mapping data across Duke's campus
 - Generate campus-wide heat exposure map, communications toolkit, and policy recommendations
 - Research global and local heat governance to author a heat governance plan for Duke
- Duke Climate Coalition, Project Member, Duke University Spring 2025-Present
- Serve on the Energy Market Reform project
 - Collect stories from North Carolina residents negatively impacted by energy monopolies
 - Create plain-language, educational resources on energy bills and affordability for local residents
- Duke Energy and Climate Club, Project Member, Duke University Fall 2025-Present
- Participate in round-table discussions on the energy landscape
 - Network with businesses in the energy industry at Duke Energy Week
 - Attend site visits and engage with energy industry professionals
- Business-Oriented Women, Diversified Industries Member, Duke University Fall 2025-Present
- Network with women-led businesses, Duke alumnae, and industry leaders through the Diversified Industries track
 - Develop leadership, entrepreneurship, and problem-solving skills through collaboration and mentorship
- Youth for Earth Conference, Founder, Millis, MA February 2025
- Created an intercommunity conference with 100+ attendees from seven different schools in Massachusetts
 - Recruited 10+ business professionals and 6 professional sponsorships to support conference funding
 - Pioneered hands-on workshops, round-table talks, and a showcase of sustainable brands

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Skills: AutoCAD, CAD, Revit, Spanish, Microsoft Office | Interests: reading, baking, volleyball, softball, writing